

The Invasion

Monday, November 23, 2020

I had a bad dream last night. I do not remember all the details, but I will share what I remembered.

My Dream – scene 1

I was with a group of 5 ladies around my age. I am not sure in the dream whether we all were business partners or we were just close friends. Either way, I was in the huge old designed school-like building. It appears that I was the owner of the building or co-owner along with the other women who were with me.

One day, a group of men, about 5 came into our town and they were causing havoc for the town's community. In fact, they came into our building, seized it, and used it as their headquarters. One of the evil things they were doing was capturing and holding women hostess. But all five of us, who were previous owners of the building escaped and went into hiding.

Scene 2 – Trying To Live Normal

All five of us found a new hideaway. We only came out when we wanted to go into town to retrieve stuff. But we were always fearful and looking out for the 5 men that took over our building. What was weird about our ventures into the town was whenever we went out to get stuff, it never were things that we really need – like food, water, etc. It was always stuff that was not worth losing your life over or being capture by those 5 men who stole our facility. Like candy, chocolate, plants, decorations, etc. It was like we were trying to live like life was normal when it was not.

Scene 3 – Two Capture

On one of the days, we were out and about, just looking around for stuff. Stuff of no value. Three of the five men saw us and start chasing us. All five of us ran for safety, but two of the women were capture. We were all hurt and scared by what just took place and were crying because we knew what those men were going to do to those two women that were apprehended. So, we started debating what we were going to do. One wanted to go find the two missing friends and rescue them. The other was not sure what she wanted to do. So, I said no, we knew the risk and it was not worth putting us all at risk to try to save them.

Scene 4 – The Chase

On one of the days, we were out shopping. We were browsing one of the community's stores. We ended up at this barnyard type of store. As we were looking around and admiring the plants and picking up chocolate, we were also on the lookout for the 5 men who stole our facility and was kidnapping women from the community.

While we were in the barnyard store, in the back looking at plants, the five men came in and were heading toward the cash register. We saw them and panic. We were scrambling trying to figure out what we were going to do and how we can get out of the store. Two of the girls, somehow, got out and was waiting outside of the barnyard store for me and the other two to come out. So, we had no choice but to hide as one of the guys started to head toward the exit. As he headed out, one of the guys from the group called him, which caused him to turn around. When he turned around, we were very exposed. He could easily see us if he looked in our direction.

At the time, the only place for us to hide was under this desk, which the leg area of the desk was very visible to him if he looked in our direction. But the three of us hid there anyway. I do not know how, but my brother suddenly appeared under the desk with us. In the dream, I did not seem surprised he was there.

At any rate, he whispered something in my left ear. I just looked at him with this dumb look on my face. But just when the guy who was standing at the doorway was about to look in our direction, my brother said something, which made his voice appear to be coming from the direction where the other 4 guys were in the store, which caused this guy to refocus his attention on them instead of looking in our direction. After my brother did that, he winked his eye at me, got up from under the desk, and started to head for the store exit as the other guy walked out of the store. As I watched my brother head out, it looked like he made a subtle gesture toward the other four men who remained in the store. The next thing we knew, the 4 guys came around the corner, saw us, and attempted to grab us.

I don't know how they were not able to detain us. But somehow, we were able to escape and ran out of the store. When we ran out, we saw the other two women who were still waiting for us. We caught up with them and we all started to run toward our hideaway. The guys ran after us. It seemed at this point we were running forever. And some of us were getting tired. But these guys were still hot on our trail. I realized there was no way we were going to outrun these guys. We had to find somewhere to hide.

By this time, we were near a cliff that none of us could jump and survive. But we felt we had no other choice. Two of the women decided to keep running. So, they did. The remaining two women and I decided we were going to jump down the cliff and hope that we can jump onto the tree that was near the cliff and slide down it to hide. So, I went first and made it and soon the two other women followed and made it too. Then we realized, we had a major huge problem. There was nowhere to hide without being seen. For, down within this valley was nothing but opened space and few tall trees to sit under for shade. So, we lean against the cliff's wall and held onto each other tight, and did not move an inch. We just hope none of the guys will see us.

As the guys made their way around the cliff, we can see them clearly. One wrong move on our part will reveal to them where we were hiding. We just sat and watched. They finally made it around the curved cliff and we decided to wait it out.

By the time they came back around, they had captured the other two women who decided to keep running. When they came around, we were saddened by what we saw. One of the guys was pulling one of the women while they all were laughing. Another guy was dragging the other girl by her ponytail. The one they were pulling by her ponytail was fighting to get free with all her might. But it was hopeless for both of them. Somehow, the woman was being dragged by her hair was able to get a hold of one of the guy's gun. Instead of shooting all of them, she decided to shoot herself.

Then I woke up.

Interpretation – November 24, 2020

Prophetess Felicia Crawford's Interpretation of My Dream – "The Invasion"

At the time when I told Felicia my dream, we were on the phone for our 5:00 a.m. morning corporate prayer. As she began to speak, I decided to record her interpretation. To hear Felicia's interpretation, click here. Or visit Felicia Crawford's ministry YouTube page by selecting the following video.

See Felicia's video recording – Interpreting Deaidre's Dream Called The Invasion. Click here to view video. Or see Newford archive.

Interpretation – November 24, 2020

Apostle Deaidre Newby's Interpretation of My Dream

After Felicia gave her interpretation, this thought entered my mind concerning my dream.

1. When my brother appeared in the dream near the end, he appeared to be helping me and my two other friends during our dilemma. Just when it seemed that it was inevitable that one of the guys was about to see us and him and his crew will capture us, my brother did something to distract his attention by throwing his voice so it would sound like one of the groups in his group was calling him, which should have brought us more time and eventually allow us to escape. But to our dismays, my brother got up, left us behind, instead of helping us to find a way out, and then appear to gesture a sign to the guys that gave us away.

This is how it will soon become. Family members will give many up to be destroyed by the enemy.

2. Another thing that stood out for me was when it seemed that our situation was hopeless in the barnyard store. There seemed to be nowhere to escape and three of us were about to be taken, hostess. And yet, somehow, when we should have been capture, we were able to escape. I felt this indicated God's grace. That He will protect His, even in the most difficult times.
3. And finally, there was the situation when we were being chased at the end of the dream and some of us seemed to not have any more energy to keep going. The only option we felt we had was to jump down this deep cliff and hide. But the jump was suicidal. And yet, we were able to make the impossible jump and hide until it was safe to come out. I felt again this was God's double grace for His people during times of trouble. He will give us the strength that is needed when we feel we cannot go on and then He will also enable us to complete the impossible task to ensure our safety.